

This initiative was supported by the Secrétariat aux relations avec les Québécois d'expression anglaise.

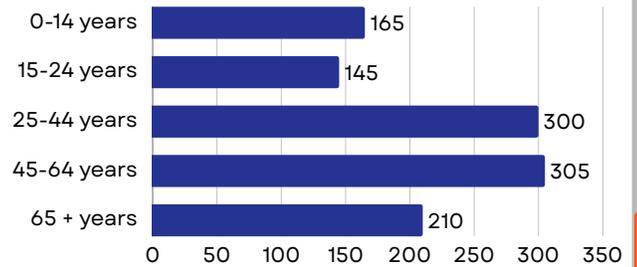

English speakers in Sept-Rivières

The municipality of Sept-Îles has 895 of the 1,115 English speakers found in the MRC of Sept-Rivières.

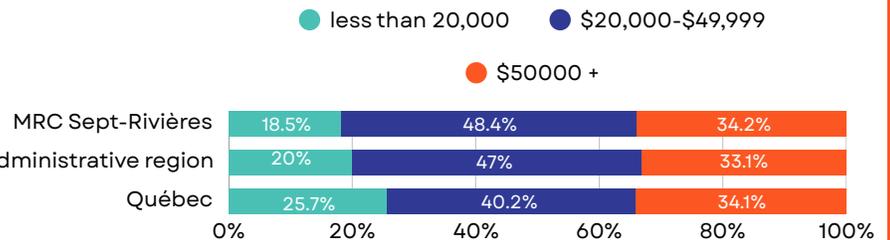

Age structure

Over half the English speakers in this MRC are between the ages of 25 and 64 years.

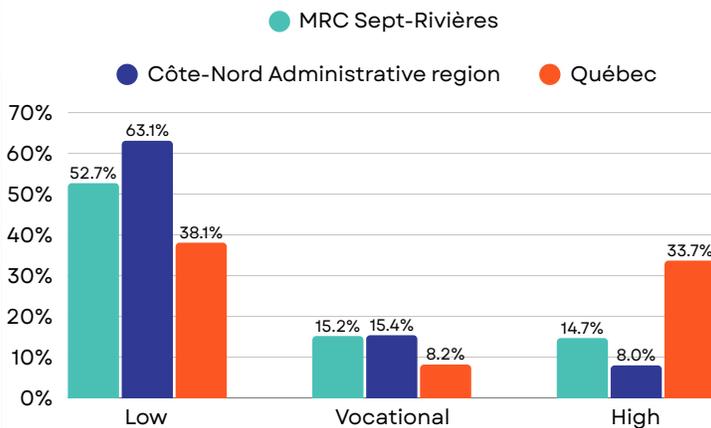

Income for English speakers

The province and the Côte-nord region have a higher proportion of their English-speaking population earning less than $20,000 per year than MRC Sept-Rivières.

Educational Attainment

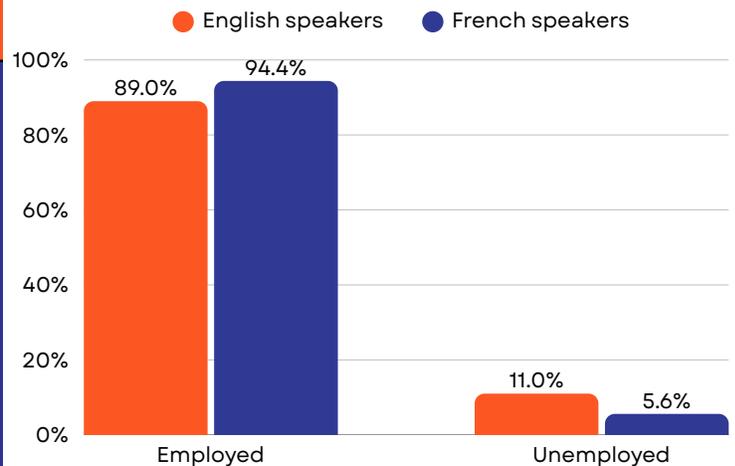

The Sept-Rivières MRC has a lower proportion of its English speakers with a university degree at bachelor level or above than the province.

*High: University certificate, diploma or degree at bachelor level or above.
 *Vocational: apprenticeship or trades certificate or diploma
 *low: High school diploma or less

Labour force

The Sept-Rivières MRC have a higher proportion of its English-speaking population as unemployed than French speakers.

References

Pocock, J. (2023). Demographic profiles of Québec's English-speaking communities region of Côte-Nord and MRC of Sept-Rivières. Québec: Community Health and Social Services Network.
 Statistics Canada. Census Profile, 2021 Census of Population.